

Hunt Sands In Nevada As Slayer Of Taylor

Pink "Nightie" and Minter Love
Letters Add to Evidence
in Mystery

SANDS NOT HIS BROTHER

Taylor's Valet Says Mabel Nor-
mand and Slain Man Were Engaged; Denied

By United Press Leased Wire
Los Angeles.—Mabel Nor-
mand, valet of the slain man, is charging Edward F. Sands with the murder of William Desmond Taylor. Sands is in the hands of Sheriff John F. Harris of Elko, Nev., where a man answering Sands' description has been under surveillance.

An immediate arrest is expected.
The warrants were issued by Acting Lieutenant Toomey after an exchange of telegrams with the sheriff's office
at Elko.

Mrs. Ada Deane-Tanner of Monrovia, Calif., who says she is a sister-
in-law of the slain man, Tuesday confirmed a police report to the effect
that they believe Sands might be Taylor's missing brother.

NOT HER HUSBAND

When shown a picture of Sands, she declared:

"He is not my husband."
Mrs. Tanner's husband disappeared
several years ago in much the same manner as Tanner disappeared from his old New York haunts.

The man reported as being Sands
was living at a small hotel at Carlin, Nev., a small railroad and mining town with a population of about 800, located about 20 miles from Elko. The latter is about 25 miles from Ogden, Utah.

The suspected man was reported to have remained in his room constantly.
A love note written by Mary Miles Minter, mainly to the screen, to the slain movie director was the latest exhibit relative to the director's
past held at police headquarters.

LOVED HIM

This note, bearing a butterfly crest
with the name "Mary Miles Minter"
on the wings, said, in a very youthful,
feminine hand:

"Dearest:
"I love you—I love you—I love
you—"
"Yours always,
"Mary"

The note was representative of Kiss, Minter, when shown the note,
did not deny writing it. It was found in the fly leaf of a book taken at random from Taylor's library.

In support of his jealousy theory
Sheriff Al Manning has as evidence
a pink silk nightgown found in the room of Taylor's dresser the night
after the murder. The "nightie" was established as the property of an internationally known film star through the initials of a private laundry mark.
Henry Peavey, Taylor's colored valet,
when shown the garment, admitted
that his employer had had it for six months.

When police questioned the owner
of the nightgown, she became hysterical.

Peavey also contributed another set of pyrotechnics to the investigation
with a statement that Mabel Normand,
film comedienne, had told him that she was engaged to Taylor. Miss Normand, who was the last person to see Taylor before he was shot, indignantly
denied Peavey's assertions.

"Mr. Taylor was in love with Miss Normand," Peavey said. "I don't think
she was so much in love with him though. She acted sometimes like she was tired of him." Police denied that the "nightie" belonged to Miss Normand.

MAY NOT BE SANDS

Elko, Nev.—The man suspected of being Edward F. Sands, wanted in connection with the murder of William Desmond Taylor, came to Elko Monday night from Carlin, according to the sheriff. He is being watched and deputies planned to question him as soon as telegraphic warrants for his arrest arrive from Los Angeles. Deputies stated, however, after closer observation, they did not believe the man under surveillance was Sands.

NOLAN TO FIGHT MAYOR AT POLLS

Fond du Lac Police Chief Challenges Haentze to Mayoralty Race

A. Nolan, recently exonerated by the fire and police commission of charges
of inefficiency in office, preferred by Mayor R. D. Haentze, Tuesday challenged that official to a mayoralty race.
In the letter to the chief executive,
Nolan, after setting forth the impossibility of successful city administration with the present friction said:

"I will resign at once as chief of police if you will resign as mayor,
and at the election be held to fill
the vacancy thus created in the office
of mayor we will both be candidates
and the citizens of Fond du Lac shall place the responsibility where, in their opinion, it rightfully belongs."

KNEW TAYLOR

Mabel Normand, actress, has been quoted by several people as being engaged to William D. Taylor, murdered movie director. She denies the affair.
She was the last person to see him
alive, visiting him at his home just before the shooting.

NEW FARM-LABOR PARTY LOOMS IN CALL FOR MEETING

"Progressives," Headed by Rail Unions, Want U. S. "Reactionaries" Ousted

Washington.—A conference of
"progressives" for the purpose of framing plans to unseat "the reactionary forces" now alleged to be in control of the government was called Tuesday to meet in Chicago, Feb. 20,
by representatives of the six big railroad labor organizations.

Although the call states positively that the meeting will not be an attempt to form a new political party,
its tenor indicates that the railroad
leaders would like to see a new farm-labor alliance—possibly an agreement with the farm bloc leaders in congress to take the labor representatives into their fold.

WANT UNITY

"The conference is an effort to make use of those constructive forces already in existence and by cooperation bring about political unity," the call states.

It was signed by William H. Johnston, president of the International Association of Machinists; Martin R.
Rylen, general president, Brotherhood Railway Carmen; Warren S.
Stone, grand chief, Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers; E. J. Manion, president, Order of Railway Telegraphers; Timothy J. Holtz, president, International Brotherhood of Firemen; and Orlin L. E. Sheppard, president, Order of Railway Conductors.

The call does not reveal who will be invited to the conference.

"We feel that the reactionary forces and special interests which are now in control of every branch of the government are pursuing a policy which has already wrecked
American industry and agriculture,
causing widespread bankruptcy and unemployment," said Johnston.

M'CORMICK LEADS TRACTOR CUT WAR

Harvester Interests Expect to Give Henry Ford Merry
Price Battle

Chicago.—Harold F. McCormick has abandoned pursuits of art, grand opera, and globe trotting to direct the price war of the International Harvester company with the Ford concern on tractors.

McCormick has taken up his residence in Chicago and plans to remain
here for some time directing the affairs of his company.

The Harvester company, in addition to cutting prices, is giving plans and other machinery away with purchases
of tractors, while other concerns are offering similar bonuses. McCormick Tuesday refused to outline further his plans for the campaign against Ford.

POPE PIUS BLESSES AMERICAN PEOPLE

By Henry Wood
(Copyright 1922 by United Press)

Rome.—"Pope Pius XI has asked me to convey to the American people his blessing," Cardinal
O'Connell of Boston, said Tuesday
in an interview with the United Press.

"The United States can be well pleased with the new head of the church. I have known him as an able diplomat, a splendid administrator, and a saintly character."

"The new pope, when he was Cardinal Ruffini, followed every step of the Washington arms conference, he told me," Cardinal O'Connell continued. "He takes the greatest interest in American affairs."

"Pope Pius XI greeted me
warmly upon my arrival here and regretted the delay that prevented
me from participating in the election."

"His holiness declared he greatly admired America's efforts in behalf of peace."

HARDING PUTS TREATIES IN FORCE IN WEST

Orders Building of Forts to Stop
on Pacific Islands Named
in Agreements

By United Press Leased Wire
Washington.—President Harding
Tuesday ordered an immediate suspension of all construction work on Pacific island fortifications.

The order Tuesday follows a recent one suspending construction work on all the battleships to be scrapped under the arms treaty.

The order to halt future construction work on Pacific island naval bases such as at Guam and the Philippines is in accordance with the provision of the naval limitation treaty calling for a maintenance of the status quo on Pacific ocean fortifications except at Hawaii, and along the coasts of the United States.

Because of these orders Harding said prompt action by the senate on the treaties is necessary.

The American naval policies resulting from the conference obviously cannot be fixed by congress until the treaties can be acted upon, it was stated. This was taken to mean that Harding desires ratification of the treaties before consideration of other domestic legislation.

4 DEAD, OTHERS ARE TRAPPED IN BIG HOTEL FIRE

Sheriff is Killed When He Misses Life Net in Jump from Window

By United Press Leased Wire
Richmond, Va.—Four were killed
and more than a score badly injured
in a fire which destroyed the Lexington hotel here Tuesday.

Firemen are searching the ruins of the building in belief that other victims may be there.

L. B. Pettus, owner of the hotel, and practically every guest who escaped,
are convinced that many others perished in the flames.

Eye witnesses told of seeing Sheriff
C. M. Thomas, his figure lined against the roaring inferno within, balance for a moment on the edge outside his window and then leap for the net
stretched beneath him. He missed
the net several feet and was killed.

Fifteen persons are reported to be in serious condition at the Virginia hospital.

ACADEMY ELECTS FIRST WOMAN—MADAME CURIE

By United Press Leased Wire
Paris.—Madame Curie, who with her husband discovered radium, was Tuesday elected a member of the French Academy of Medicine. By her election, the famous woman scientist becomes the first woman academician.

There were several other candidates for the vacancy in the academy, all of whom withdrew in Madame Curie's favor. The academy went into secret session before deciding to break its precedents and elect a woman.

Must Decide If This Painting Is Naughty One

New York.—September Morning threw a "natural" a few years ago and got away with it as a work of art.
But officials of the National Arts club here Tuesday aren't so sure that George W. Bellows will get away with a "semi-September Morn" painting he submitted to the club's annual exhibition—Bellows threw a shaft around September's shoulders.

Fate of the picture will not be known until the club's art committee
acts on a resolution concerning it Wednesday. The board of governors is reported to have framed the resolution.

Heat of the controversy seems to radiate from the question "Is nudity refined and dignified, or does refinement cease
where clothes start?"

MORAL FORCE, NOT ARMS, IS NEW U. S. AIM

Harding's Address is Mark for Future Pathways in American Policy

By David Lawrence
(Copyright, 1922, by Post Pub. Co.)

Washington.—President Harding
Monday turned the policy of America
back—some people will say forward—to the power of moral rather than physical force.

This change—and Mr. Harding avowed it proudly in the concluding speech of the arms conference—means that henceforth the argument that the best way to prevent war is to prepare for it with military and naval strength will be abandoned and the Republican administration of today,
including the congress of tomorrow,
will revert to the days before 1917
when reliance on moral justice was misunderstood pacifism, when the phases "too good to fight" and "fortunately conveyed to war-impressioned minds an impression of physical timidity."

"I once believed in armed preparedness," said President Harding to the arms conference, "I advocated it. But I have changed my mind. I believe now in the power of moral force. I believe that a world opinion made ready to grant justice—precisely as it exacts
it. And justice is better served in conference of peace than in conflict
of arms."

STATEMENT IS NOTABLE

It was Mr. Harding's associates in the United States senate who bitterly attacked President Wilson for his refusal in December, 1914, to yield to the pressure for armed preparedness.
Mr. Wilson's belief that moral force would triumph was tenaciously held only to be abandoned in the spring of 1917 with a program of preparedness
which preceded the outbreak of hostilities with Germany.

Again Mr. Harding hopes as did
Mr. Wilson before the war clouds with Germany gathered that America
need not prepare for war. Again America asks the other nations to abandon the theory of armed preparedness which developed militarism
in Germany and brought on the most destructive war of history. Again America points a finger of warning
to France, with her large standing army, that peace is better attained
by moral suasion than armed conflict.

Except for a general expression of hope that conferences like that held at Washington may again be held at appropriate times, there was no plea for a rigid association of nations, no formula for a league of nations to substitute for the one created at Versailles. The president is treading cautiously. He doesn't want the debate in the senate to be complicated
by extraneous affairs. He is driving hard for ratification and the probability is that the treaty trates are approved by a two-thirds vote of the American senate, the decision of the United States government on participation in the Geneva
parley will be withheld.

HOWAT FREE WHILE HE DEFENDS UNION

Pittsburg, Kansas.—Alexander Howat,
who secured his release from the Columbus, Kansas, jail late Monday
when his lawyers filed appeal bond.
Tuesday declared he desired his release only long enough to defend himself and his "rump" miners before the United Mine Workers convention at Indianapolis Feb. 14.

Howat, who was sentenced to jail
for violating the Kansas industrial court law, declared he then would return to jail and finish the sentence.

August Dorchey, Howat's vice president, was also released on appeal bond.

officers and civilians Tuesday appeared before the senate investigating committee to defend the army against charges of illegal executions of American soldiers in France.

KING GEORGE SEES CLOSER TIE WITH U. S.

Work of Arms Conference is Praised at Opening Session of Parliament

URGES STABILITY OF TRADE

Reform of House of Lords is Among Bills to Be Submitted to Lawmakers

By Ed L. Keen

London.—King George Tuesday
warmly praised the work of the Washington arms conference "for which the world
owes a great
debt of gratitude to the initiative of President Harding."

In his address at the opening
of parliament.
Both houses
of parliament
convened at a noon Tuesday
with a number
of problems facing the house
of commons.
The opposition
whips were busy preparing for the
opening debate,
in which the
"die hard" conservatives were expected to raise the question of the breakdown in the Irish boundary negotiations.

ELECTION NEAR

The imminence of a general election, which British tradition requires some time before next fall, because
the present government has lived
nearly its full term, made the attack
of the opposition upon the government's handling of the Egyptian, Indian and Irish problems, as well as Lloyd George's European policy, more dangerous.

Referring first to the four-power
Pacific agreement, King George declared:
"While the new treaty replaces the Anglo-Japanese alliance, I am happy to feel that those two countries will remain as cordial as ever towards
each other under the arrangements
concluded at the arms conference."

At the same time our relations with the United States enter into a new and even closer phase of friendship."

URGES ECONOMY

King George went on to refer to the necessity for economy at home, warning the public, through parliament
that retrenchment has been planned
by the government which would involve hardening upon many individuals
and the postponement of fulfillment
of many of the public's hopes.

"The final establishment of the Irish free state as a partner in the British commonwealth is anxiously awaited through the world," he said. "You will therefore be invited
in an early date to consider such measures as may be necessary to give effect to this agreement."

"World trade must be improved,"
the king said, and for this reason
and the removal of international suspicions he declared: "We welcome arrangements which have been made for an international economic conference
at Geneva, at which we trust it will be possible to establish a fair basis upon which Europe can reach a settlement of the question which arises from the present financial and economic reconstruction."

Among the bills which will be submitted to the present parliament,
King George announced will be one calling for reform of the house of lords.

NEENAH MAN IS ROTARY SPEAKER

The Rev. Raymond Heron, boy scout commissioner of Neenah, addressed the Rotary club on scouting
at its regular meeting Tuesday noon
following dinner at the Sherman banquet hall. Ketter, for some time an officer in the local boy scout council, also talked on the benefits, necessity and advantages of a scout organization.

A meeting of the men who plan to attend the district convention in Duluth, Minn., March 16 and 17, was held Monday evening for the purpose of learning new songs. About 15 men attended the meeting and more than 30 will attend the convention.

REACH EUROPE TOO LATE FOR PAPAL ELECTION

By United Press Leased Wire
Avire, France.—Cardinal Dougherty and Bogh arrived here Tuesday worried from the heavy storms which delayed their steamer and disappointed at having reached Europe too late to take part in the election of the new pope.

Cardinal Dougherty declared he believed American Catholics will find a new force under Pius XI.

Cardinal Begin said: "I believe that Pope Pius XI will continue to use his influence in support of a policy of accord and peace."

dinal Marini, who had been ill with

Congress Will Act at Once to Reduce Taxes for Mil- itary Purposes

"BOB" WILL OPPOSE TREATY

Peaceful Atmosphere is Expected to End When Senate
Considers Ratification

By Lawrence Martin
By United Press Leased Wire

Washington.—A demand that the army be reduced to 100,000 men will be the first congressional move resulting from the arms conference,
which ended Monday.

This would cut taxes and give the American people an immediate benefit from the conference. Supporters of the plan point out. They believe that with causes of national misunderstandings removed an army of 100,000
instead of 150,000 would be sufficient.

A much more drastic reduction in the number of officers than the five-thousand cut proposed by General Pershing also will be advocated on the same grounds.

Senatorial opinion respecting the conference Tuesday reflected the administration views—that the parley
was a long step forward. If the treaties were to be voted on now, they would be overwhelmingly ratified.

EXPECT FIGHT

But it is not foreseen that there was a time when the Versailles treaty
and the league of nations covenant
were also high in senatorial esteem.
While administration leaders were confident of fairly speedy ratification
by large margins, the power of senators, the backing of Johnson to stir up public opposition and to influence
senatorial opinion was not being lost sight of.

Borah and LaFollette and France,
Maryland, are sure to oppose the four-power treaty. Hiram Johnson, may be opposed by the supporters of the treaty, including the supporters of Japan
from the Pacific states. Mc-Carty, Oregon, would like a reservation
making it clear that the senate interprets the treaty as not imposing on the United States any moral obligation to use force.

Senator Underwood, Democratic
leader, holds the key to the whole situation.

Success of the program depends on his ability to carry with his vote those of most of the Democratic senators.

"Pittsburg Plus" Plan Prevents

Steel Man Says

By United Press Leased Wire
Milwaukee.—"If the Pittsburg
plus practice continues, we will have to move part of our plant to Pittsburg
in order to compete with eastern manufacturers," said R. P. Diekelman, of the Pittsburg plus plant, at the hearing before the federal trade commission of the Pittsburg plus practice here Tuesday.

Diekelman testified that his company has thought of the idea of dismantling part of their plant here in Milwaukee and moving it to Pittsburg where they would be able to compete on an even basis.

The entire morning was devoted to the cross examining of Diekelman
who had appeared as the second witness Monday.

BOARD APPROVES SELECTION OF SURVEY EXPERT

Attorney General's Office Finds
School Situation Here
Very Complicated

The board of education, at its regular monthly meeting at Appleton high school Monday afternoon, ratified the action of the joint school committee of the board of education and common council, Lee C. Rasey, in the absence of W. H. Kreiss, secretary, gave a detailed report of the four meetings of the joint committee since the previous meeting of the board of education and read the resolution passed at one of the meetings recommending to the common council the appointment of G. T. Lockhart of St. Paul to make a school survey and needs of the city. The report met with the approval of the board and was carried by a unanimous vote.

The opinion of the attorney general relative to the school situation in Appleton has not yet arrived. Mr. Rasey reported he had received a letter from the attorney general's office that the opinion had been written by one of the attorneys of the office who had spent a great deal of time on its preparation and that it had been before the attorney general and his entire staff twice for revision, but the school situation in Appleton is so complicated that further time is needed to make additional charges. However, the board of education expects to receive the opinion within the next few days.

Of the $95,000 appropriation for the year, a financial report prepared by the secretary of the board showed the expenditures for the seven months beginning July 1 to be approximately $53,000. Bills for the month amounting to $451.59 were audited. The board decided to dismiss school on Washington's birthday, Wednesday, Feb. 22.

Music Memory Contest NO. 15

JOHANNES BRAHMS
German Composer of Late Nineteenth Century

Johannes Brahms (1833-1897) was the foremost German composer of absolute music in the modern school. Brahms has been ranked with Bach and Beethoven and his compositions show the same rare mastery of the technical difficulties of music combined with the love of poetic tonal expression.

The true beauty and worth of Brahms' composition can only be appreciated by intimate acquaintance. He wrote no operas. His greatest large work was the "German Requiem." He wrote many beautiful songs, four symphonies and two serenades for orchestras, a violin and piano concerto, the double concerto for violin and cello, several beautiful chamber music compositions, and the Hungarian dances.

Brahms contributed no new forms to music but he showed the modern world the absolute beauty of the art.

Cradle Song
In this charming lullaby, Brahms has caught the simple grace of the folk song. When one remembers the greatness of Brahms' contrapuntal skill one feels that Gluck spoke the truth when he said, "Simplicity and truth are the sole principles of the beautiful in art."

OUTLINE PLAN TO GIVE PUBLICITY TO THIS VALLEY

Plan Will be Submitted at Meeting of Valley Chambers of Commerce

Practically all preliminary work in the proposed campaign to advertise the Fox river valley to the rest of the world has been completed by the committee in charge and a report has been prepared. This report will be read at a joint meeting of all chambers of commerce farm organizations and perhaps other civic associations to be held in some central city within the next two months. Hugh G. Corbett, managing secretary of Appleton Chamber of Commerce was asked to arrange for that meeting. Details of the plan probably will not be made public until they have the approval of the chamber of commerce in the valley.

It is proposed to offer the plan at a public meeting which one or two men of prominence will be asked to address. The plan is said to be comprehensive and includes publication of advertising pamphlets and a national advertising campaign in magazines and newspapers.

NAME COMMITTEE FOR "STYLE WEEK"

Style week will be observed by Appleton merchants in March, probably early in the month, it has practically been decided by Appleton Advertising club which will have charge of the venture. The Advertising club accepted the invitation of the retail merchants committee of the chamber of commerce to take charge of the work.

The following committee representing the club, will have direct supervision:

H. A. Schlitz, chairman, John Muller, H. C. Tunison, George Dame, Julius G. Koppin, Gerald S. Galpin, H. E. Young and H. L. Davis.

A Study In "Still" Life

THIS stack of stills looked too good to keep still about so here's the picture of them for you. All of them were taken in raids by Appleton police.

Chief of Police George T. Prim is seen at the left of this batch of blasted hopes. The picture will indicate at once that the country isn't suffering from prohibition but from the lack of it.

Notice, for instance, the wash boiler in the center with an elephant's trunk effect. This is by far the best constructed and most costly distilling outfit in the batch. Chief Prim values its value at $100. It was taken from the home of Louis H. Orphal of 885 Madison-st., now so journing in the county jail by reason thereof. Its capacity is 15 gallons.

Look closely at the upper center. Can you make out the teeny-weeny still? This is the smallest still in the assortment. It has—or rather it had before it was destroyed—a capacity of two gallons. When taken by the police from the home of Gustave Knoll, 997 Leninwah-st., it was steaming merrily. In fact it was the only still in the batch which the officers found in action during their raids.

The oddish looking affair in the foreground at the exact center is the only still which was not seized by due process of law. This one was found by officers in the ravine at South River-st. Notice the dinges in it and its general banged up appearance. As a measure of safety first its owner took the axe to it and tossed it into the ravine to get rid of it.

Speaking in terms of money this array of stills represents considerable coin. All the apparatus except the coolers is pure copper and the value of the cheapest one in the lot is placed at between $15 and $20. All of them were well constructed too, showing that they were not made by amateurs.

Shortly after this picture was taken in a rear corner of the police station, the whole collection was reduced to copper junk by means of an axe

Seek Home For Jewish Girl Baby

A wee Jewish baby girl between the age of eight and nine months now a homeless orphan will not be long without a home if the Rev. F. C. Brayton of 6 Brookway Pl., superintendent of the Children's Home Society of Wisconsin, can find a place for her with a Jewish family hereabouts.

That is the chief condition to the adoption: she will be placed only in a Jewish family. At present the baby is being cared for by a Jewish society in Milwaukee.

During the last year the Children's Home society has placed 204 children in homes and has cared for 102 others. If any Jewish family in this locality wants an additional member in the person of a dark-eyed baby girl of their own faith, they can get in touch with the Rev. Mr. Brayton at his home or by telephone, No. 709.

Cocoon Oil Makes A Splendid Shampoo

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Multisided cocoon oil shampoo (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls of Multisided will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Multisided cocoon oil shampoo at any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months. Be sure your druggist gives you Multisided.

All the offices will be taken by past masters. The work will be followed by a banquet.

Knights Get Wood from Tree From Which Columbus Made a Cross

Kaukauna.—A cross made from the wood of the tree from which Columbus constructed a cross with which he opposed the Arawak Indians in the battle of Cedro Santo, Santo Domingo, shortly after his discovery of America, has been received by the Knights of Columbus in this country through the Rev. A HOME-MADE GRAY HAIR REMEDY

You Can Make a Better Gray Hair Remedy Than You Can Buy

Gray, streaked or faded hair is not only unbecoming, but necessary. Anyone can prepare a simple mixture at home that will darken gray hair, and make it soft and glossy. To a half-pint of water add a ounce of bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound and a ounce of glycerine. These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost, or the druggist will put it up for you. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. This will make a gray haired person look twenty years younger. It is easy to use, does not color the scalp is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off.

CHURCH HAS NOVEL PLAN TO PAY DEBT

Kaukauna.—A novel way of eradicating the church debt has been undertaken by the official board of Brookview Methodist church in an "Every member earn a dollar" campaign which opened Monday morning. The campaign will continue until Monday Feb. 25 during which time every member of the congregation is expected to earn a dollar to turn over to the committee in charge of the campaign. C. D. Towles and J. D. Delbridge were appointed members of the committee at a meeting of the official board last Thursday when the plan was adopted.

Several hundred dollars are expected as a result of the contest. Plans are under way for a program and banquet after the campaign is closed. The event will be free to those who turn in their money during the campaign while others will be required to submit the $1 fee. The plan was explained at the Sunday services in the church and already several members have turned over their quota.

VALLEY MINISTERS MEET IN KAUKAUNA

Edwin Miller Esther Mau and John Parent were appointed on a new devotional committee to arrange the program for Sunday evening meetings of the society. A social meeting followed the business session.

DENY FAILURE TO FILE RED CROSS DRIVE REPORT

Rumors Monday in the town of Vandenberg that no report of the amount of money raised there in the annual Red Cross roll call last November had been made to roll call headquarters in Appleton were denied by Hugh G. Corbett roll call chairman.

"The town of Vandenberg subscribed $17.50 during the roll call and a check for this amount was received from the local chairman, George J. Jansen," Mr. Corbett said. "The town has been given credit for this sum."

Piles

Can't Be Cured From the Outside External treatments seldom cure Piles. Nor do surgical operations. The cause is inside—bad circulation. The blood is stagnant, the veins flabby.

The bowel walls are weak, the parts almost dead. To quickly and safely rid yourself of piles you must free the circulation—send a fresh current through the stagnant pools. Internal treatment is the one safe method. Ointments and cutting won't do it.

J. S. Leonhardt, M. D., a specialist, set at work some years ago to find a real internal remedy for piles. He succeeded. He named his prescription HEM-ROID, and tried it in 1000 cases before he was satisfied. Now HEM-ROID is sold by druggists everywhere under guarantee. It is a harmless tablet, easy to take, and can always be found at Schlitz Bros. and druggists everywhere, who will gladly refund the purchase price to any dissatisfied customer. adv.

Sends Proof Of Candy's Excellence To The Editor

Fudges are still a bit behind in the candy race, but the men are right there with their recipes. At least a few of them are and the rest are coming in, too! The contest editor is still begging for candy recipes, more candy recipes although the response has been splendid.

Just between you and me, the life of a contest editor is not so dull when some of the contestants send along a sample of their candy. On Monday morning, the office force of the Post-Crescent voted unanimously in favor of one contestant who sent a box of delicious home made marshmallows to the contest editor, who shared them with the rest. If the office force was a part of the judges committee, the marshmallow lady would have won the prize, but unluckily, neither the contest editor nor his colleagues have one word to say about the prizes.

Do send along your recipes! Please remember to write the fudge recipes on a separate sheet for the convenience of those who type them. Get yours in early for Candy week lasts only until Thursday noon.

A Health Lesson from Nature

Nature is PERFECTION, and works in many peculiar ways to attain it.

Unless prevented by accidental conditions Nature always attains a high standard of perfection. In man this means Health.

WHAT CAUSES DISEASE?

It MUST be an interference. Sever the roots of a tree and it will gradually starve and die because the sap is shut off. Man's life force may be likened to the sap of the tree.

If the nerve cables become pinched or squeezed where they branch off from the backbone, due to one of the vertebrae (Joints) slipping out of the place, the life force is shut off and disease sets in, in those organs supplied by the pinched nerves.

This injury to the nerves can be corrected and perfect health restored by

CHAPTER XVI

Tom Sanders, working on afternoon town at Jackpot Number Three, the loan, tanned driller in charge of operations was wise with an uncanny knowledge the newcomer could not fathom. For eight hours at a stretch he stood on the platform and watched a greasy cable go slipping into the

This snail romance to Jed Burns, superintendent of operations, though he would never have admitted it. He was sitting sand through his fingers when Dave came. To Bob Hart, present as Crawford's personal representative, he expressed an opinion.

"Right soon now or never. Sand tastes, feels, looks, and smells like oil. But you can't ever be sure. An oil prospect is like a woman. She will or she won't, you never can tell which. Then, if she does, she's liable to change her mind."

Dave sniffed the pleasing, pungent odor of the crude oil sands. His friend had told him that Crawford's fate hung in the balance. Unless oil flowed very soon in paying quantities he was a ruined man.

After his shift was over, he rode to town with Bob.

"Got to look for an engineer for the night town," Hart explained as he drew up in front of the Gusher saloon.

The place hummed with the turbulent life that drifts to every wild frontier on the boom. Faro dealers from the Klondike, poker dealers from Nome, roulette croupiers from Leadville, were all here to reap the rich harvest to be had from investors, field workers and operators.

Bob found his man at a faro table. While the cards are being shuffled, he engaged him to come out next evening to the Jackpot properties.

While Dave was standing close to the wall he caught sight of Steve Russell.

The cowpuncher looked up and waved his hand.

Bob joined them. After a moment's conversation Russell drew them to a corner.

"Say, you heard the news, Bob?" "I can tell you that better after I know what it is," returned Hart with a grin.

"The stage was held up at Cottonwood Bend this morning and robbed of $10,000. The driver was killed."

"Whose money was it?"

"Brad Steelman's pay roll and a shipment of gold for the bank."

"Any idea who did it?"

"That's what I want to tell you. Two men were in the job. They're whispering that Em Crawford was one."

"Crawford? Some of Steelman's fine work in that rumor, I'll bet. That's plumb foolish talk. What evidence does he claim?" demanded Hart.

"Em deposited ten thousand with the First National to pay off a note he owed the bank. The driver was right straight to the bank two hours after the stage got in. Then, too, seems one of the hold-ups called the other one Crawford."

"A plant," said Dave promptly.

"They claim the second man was Dave here."

"Hmp! What time do you say this hold-up took place?"

"Must 'a been about eleven."

"Let's Dave out. He was fifteen miles away, and we can prove it by at least six witnesses."

"Good. I reckon Em can put in an alibi, too."

"I'll bet he can," Hart promised this with conviction.

"Where is Crawford now?" asked Dave. "He hasn't been arrested, has he?"

"Not yet. But he's been watched."

"I'd better get to his house and talk with him," suggested Hart. "He can give as good an alibi as you, Dave."

"You and I will go straight there," decided Sanders.

They opened the door to the knock of the young men. At sight of them her face lit.

"Oh, I'm so glad you've come!" she cried, tears in her voice. She caught her hands together in a convulsive little gesture.

Her father was sitting in a big chair, one leg thrown carelessly over the arm. He was smoking a cigar composedly.

"Come in, boys," he called. "Reckon you've heard that I'm a stage rustler and a murderer."

"Just now," said Bob. "They didn't arrest you?"

"Not yet. Sit down, and I'll tell it to you."

He had come out to see a home-lander about doing some work for him. On the way he had met John and Purdy, near the Bend, just before he had turned up a draw lead- ing to the place in the hills owned by the man whom he wanted to see.

Two hours had been spent riding to the little valley where the nestor had built his corral and his log house, and when Crawford arrived neither he nor his wife was at home.

He returned to the road, without having met a soul since. He had left it, and from there jogged on back to town. On the way he had fired twice at a rattlesnake.

"You never reached the Bend, then, at all," said Dave.

"No, but I can't prove I didn't. The old gentleman looked at the end of his cigar thoughtfully. "No, I can't prove I went out to lick Grein's place in that three-four hours not accounted for."

"Anyhow, you can show where you got the ten thousand dollars you paid the bank," said Bob hopefully.

A moment of silence; then Crawford spoke. "No, son, I can't tell that either."

Faint and breathless with suspense, Joyce looked at her father with dilated eyes. "Why not?"

"Because the money was loaned me on those conditions."

"But—but—don't you see, Dad?—if you don't tell that—"

"They'll think I am guilty. Well, I reckon they'll have to think it, Joy."

The steady gray eyes looked straight into the brown ones of the girl. "I've been in this country boy and man for most fifty years. Any one that's willin' to think me a cold-blooded murderer at this date, why, he's welcome to hold any opinion he pleases. I don't give a damn what he thinks."

"The best explanation I can give, Joy, is to find out who held up the stage and killed Tim Harrigan. It's the only one that will satisfy my friends."

Some one was rapping on the front door impatiently. The girl opened it, to let into the hall a man in greasy overalls.

"Where's Mr. Crawford?" he demanded excitedly.

"Here. In the sitting room. What's wrong?"

"Wrong! Not a thing!" He talked as he followed Joyce to the door of the room. "Except that Number Three's come in the biggest gusher ever I see. She's knocked the whole superstructure galley-west."

Emerson Crawford leaped to his feet, and once visibly excited.

"What?" he demanded. "What's that?"

"Just like I say. The oil's a-spout- ing up a hundred feet like a fan. Before morning the stump holes will be full and she'll be runnin' all over the prairie."

"Burns sent you?"

"Yep. Says for you to get men and teams and scrapers and gunny-sacks and heavy timbers out there right away. Many as you can send."

Crawford turned to Bob, his face aglow. "You're job, Bob. Spread the news. Rustle up everybody you can get. Arrange with the railroad grade contractor to let us have all his men, teams, and scrapers till we get her hogtied and harnessed. Big wages and we'll feed the whole outfit free. Hire anybody you can find. Buy a couple hundred shovels and send 'em out to Number Three. Get Robin- son to move his tent-restaurant out there."

Hart nodded. "What about this job at the Bend?" he asked in a low voice.

"Dave and I'll attend to that. You hump on the Jackpot job. Sons, we're rich, all three of us. Point is to keep from losin' that crude on the prairie."

Jackpot Number Three had come in a roar that shook the earth for a half a mile. Deep below the surface there was a hiss and a crackle, the shock of rending strata giving way to the pressure of the oil pool. Rocks, clay, and sand were hurled into the air, to come down in a shower that bombarded everything within a radius of several hundred yards.

With the first faint streaks of day men came galloping across the desert to the Jackpot. They came at first on horseback, singly, and later by twos and threes. A burkboard appeared on the horizon, the tarry stuff leaning forward as he urged on his team.

There was an immediate stampede to make locations in the territory adjacent. The wildcatter flourished. Companies were formed in ten minutes and the stock subscribed for in had far from the best. From the hotel to the banker, everybody wanted stock in every company drilling within a reasonable distance of Jackpot Number Three.

Meanwhile the oil boiled up in the lake and flowed over its edges in streams. As soon as the second reservoir was ready the tarry stuff was siphoned into it from the original sump hole. By the time this was full a third pool was finished, and into it the overflow was diverted. But in spite of the great effort made to save the product of the gusher, the sands absorbed many thousands of dollars' worth of petroleum.

This end of the work was under the direction of Bob Hart. For ten days he did not take off his clothes. When he slept it was in cat naps, an hour or so, and again from the fight with the rising tide of wealth that threatened to engulf its owners. He was unshaven, un- bathed, his clothes slimy with tar and grease.

At the other end Jed Burns com- manded. One after another he tried all the devices he had known to suc- ceed in capping or checking other gushers. The flow was so continu- ous and powerful that none of these were effective.

COMPLETE PHOTO CAR IS LATEST INVENTION

(Special to Post-Crescent)
Atlantic City, N. J.—Now that the New York Automobile Show has brought forth cars equipped with electric cigar lighters, manicure sets and private bars, the progressive photographers of Atlantic City have evolved a "photocar," consisting of a special body in the form of a giant grafex camera attached to the chassis of an ordinary automobile. The body combines both camera and dark room, so that the photographer may climb a ladder, snap a picture, and develop the negative, which is the latest wrinkle in modern news photography and guarantees speedy service which would otherwise be impossible.

ACTRESS, NECK BROKEN, MAKES NOTED COMEBACK

Special to The Post-Crescent
New York—Lillian Lorraine, popular Broadway musical comedy star, after having spent most of 1921 in a hospital as the result of a broken neck sustained in an accident early in January, has made a sensational "come-back." She is now appearing in New York as co-star with Joseph Cawthorne in a new musical comedy, "The Blue Kitten." When Miss Lorraine suffered injuries which kept her neck in a brace for several months, theatre-goers agreed that she would be unable to return to the stage. But she fooled 'em.

Noted Author Deplores Modern Treatment Of Problem Of Marriage

Mrs. Mary K. Maule, Author of Book on Matrimony, Declares Young People Wed in Ignorance of Obligations.

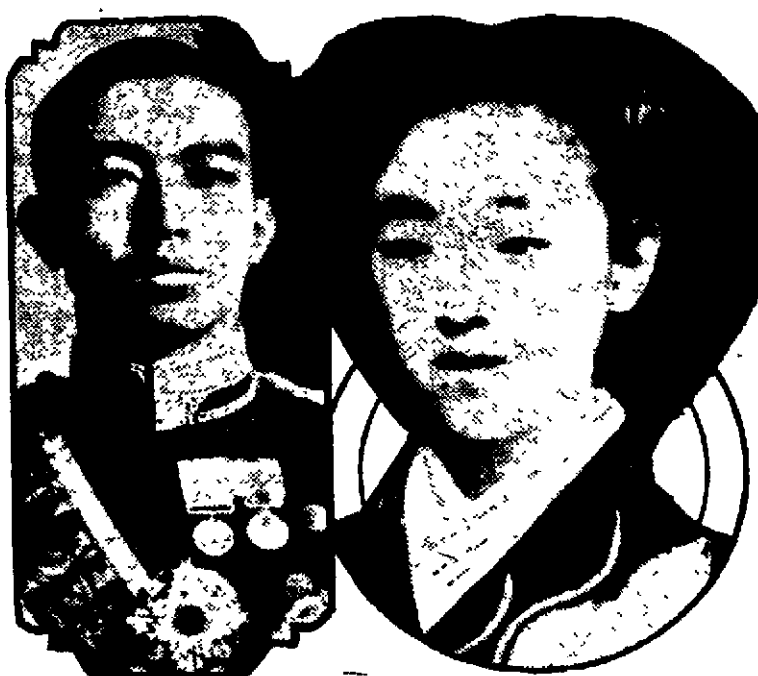

By Alice Rohe.
New York.—The way the human race treats its marriage question is criminal.
Mrs. Mary K. Maule, whose book, "God's Anointed," has caused so great a discussion on account of her unorthodox position on the religious question and because of her lucid analysis of marital adjustments, was the speaker.

No Understanding
"Young girls and young boys marry without understanding the physical, spiritual or biological significance of marriage," she said. "A marriage is no marriage which is not a spiritual union."
"The trouble is, many people think, when we say spiritual marriage, it means a sanctimonious, ascetic matter. But the real spiritual marriage includes all the relationships between man and woman which the creator of the race intended should exist."
In "God's Anointed," Mrs. Maule presents with her clear psychology the marital adjustment of a young clergyman whose devotion to his church is an obsession, and his young wife, a woman of the world. Through many mental and material vicissitudes they finally reach what Mrs. Maule says is the greatest thing in marriage—mental and spiritual understanding and perfect comradeship.

"One of the great illnesses of the world," she continued, is the unhappy marriage. "Too many men and women marry from one of three causes: Physical attraction, youthful romance, propinquity."
"It is never too early to begin giving children an idea of the importance of the home and their relation to that home and to society. Young people have too little sense of responsibility—too little knowledge of what life really means and the forces which make for happy marriage."

ANOTHER BOOK
Published at the same time as "God's Anointed" and by the same author, was "The Bryne Girls," a wholesome, simple, vivacious story of the modern girl in business life. It is said to be the best girl's book since Louisa M. Alcott. In this, as in "God's Anointed," Mrs. Maule gives a study of adjustment.
Both books teach a constructive and uplifting philosophy—one for the "budding intellect" and the other for the mature mind.
Mrs. Maule is the mother of three children, all prominent in the world of affairs.

The ceremonies will follow the Shintoist ritual. They will last seven days. During this time a national holiday will be proclaimed throughout the Japanese Empire.
On the morning of the wedding day the crown prince will go to the shrine of his ancestors in the imperial palace.
There he will read a report to his ancestors, announcing he is about to take a wife and that the union is for the best interests of the nation.
Prince Kaji, brother of the emperor, will officiate as head priest of the imperial household. Prince Hirohito will wear a robe of black silk.
The rest of the day will be given over to festivities culminating in a dinner party attended by 3000 guests including members of the imperial household and foreign diplomats.

Polly and Paul--and Paris

Chapter 31--Discords

BY ZOE BECKLEY

"Well—and how did it all turn out?"
Violet's radiant personality shed an aura about Paul's gloomy office. Angry and sullen as he had been for days over the outcome of the dinner with Rigaud, Violet's presence somehow cheered him. He couldn't have told why. It was like waking from an ugly dream to find the bedroom flooded with light and someone sitting there smiling and comfortable, the incarnation of all that is serene.
He couldn't launch out at her and say the things that had been festering in his mind; "It's all your hateful fault! I might have known such methods could only result in failure. The sale is lost, the man's an enemy and—by far the worst of all—my wife's honor subjected to insult and humiliation."
Instead, he looked away from her and answered glumly:
"It failed deplorably. The man's a beast."
The swish of silken skirts, the fragrance of costly perfume, the use of lotions, lay a white gloved hand upon his sleeve—
"Do you mean he didn't give you the order?" Her tone was low with astonishment. "Why, Paul—I can't believe it. And he most certainly is not," she added with emphasis, "a brute."
He turned from her wearily.
"Very well; we won't discuss it."
"Don't be short with me, Paul. I—I want to discuss it. There's been some misunderstanding."
"Yes—rather."
"But you must have imagined it! What could he do that was so dreadful?"
"I was called to the telephone—an important message from the Chateau."
He turned from her wearily.
"Very well; we won't discuss it."
"Don't be short with me, Paul. I—I want to discuss it. There's been some misunderstanding."
"Yes—rather."

Adventures Of The Twins

"The Stolen Key"

The Twins liked Mr. Pim Pim at once. He was the fat, funny little leader of the Brownies, you know, and the children had come to him for help. What does fatness, or funniness, or lumpiness count for if one's eyes are kind and merry? And Pim Pim's eyes were the merriest ever.
"I must be going now," said the Magical Mushroom when the how-do-you-do's were over. "You children are all right with your Magical Soup!" and I'm sure that the three of you will get along famously. Mr. Pim Pim will show you where to dig the sparkling colors for the Christmas toys and if I am not mistaken he has two enchanted shovels to give you. But chanted shovels will tell you all about that himself. I'm only being a gossip. Bye-bye, laddies! Be good!" Then kissing them both affectionately and shaking hands with the Brownie King, off went the good old fairy. Or rather out he went, like a candle flame when you blow it. One instant he wasn't, that was all! That's what comes of being magical.
When he had gone, Mr. Pim Pim turned to Nancy and Nick. "Well, well, well!" he said. "You couldn't have come at a better time, for Kip has been cutting up high links. You know he used to be leader of the Brownies and is now trying to do what he can to hinder me in my work. What do you think he's done? Stolen the key to my cupboard where I had the shovels hidden! The worst of it is that he's skipped off through the secret passage to the village of the gnomes and if he gives the gnomes the key, dear knows when we'll ever get it. The gnomes have as many secret places to hide things as a porcupine has quills."

SPARE TIME JOBS FOR FATHER

The shelf, in the kitchen, in which cooking dishes are kept, often becomes overcrowded. This in spite of the fact that there is really plenty of room.
Make use of all the room by running a bar from one end of the shelf to the other, through the center. You can then hang pots and flat pans against this.

ONLY MUSIC IS OF ANY CONSEQUENCE TO THIS NEW STAR

Elly Ney Doesn't Think Much of Clothes, Buttons and Technique

By Ruth Abeling
New York.—Elly Ney—she crossed the room, hand extended, a ringless hand, quite white, quite strong. Elly Ney—pronounced Nigh—has been in America three months.
"I like America," she said, and then smiled at her own ordinary phrase. Because Elly Ney isn't ordinary, else she couldn't be the new star on the musical horizon. She is a pianist.
Clothes?
"Incidental! Superficial!" says she. "It has been rumored that Madame Ney wears no buttons on her clothing. 'Perhaps—perhaps!' English is still quite new to her tongue. 'But buttons—what are they to music?' I wear clothes that are easy to wear. I can't be fussing with more fastenings than must be! But I have no particular aversion to buttons more than to hooks!"
There Elly is at home! She talks! "When I was little I used to sit behind the piano and listen to my mother play. She was a musician. I tried to play the tunes after her."
At 10 Madame Ney earned a scholarship in a Berlin conservatory. At 16 she won the Mendelssohn prize—a grand piano—in a contest of which Joseph Joachim, violinist, was one of the judges.
As for technique—Elly Ney dispenses with it in a line—
MUSIC IS SOUL
"It doesn't exist for me!" says she. "Music is soul! There is no soul in hours and hours of practice with only technique in mind. You say when you hear the wonderful technician—'He goes so fast—that is wonderful!' But music is not speed. It is not doing something the same way every day. It is spirit. It is soul!"
That is the definition which Elly Ney—whom America is hailing as the new musical star—gives for music.
"American audiences are very healthy," says she. "They are not spoiled, not blasé." This after playing in all of the great centers of Europe.

FOR GREASING TINS
When the paste has been used, save the jar in which it came, fill it with lard, buy a small new brush and put it in the center where the paste brush was. This is a very convenient arrangement for greasing the tops of bread or rolls and for greasing baking tins.

FOR BETTER BAKINGS

Use Calumet Baking Powder. That's true of everything you make—one trial will convince you. Doughnuts, pies, cakes, biscuits, muffins, come from the oven light, tasty, sweet and wholesome because

CALUMET BAKING POWDER never varies in its leavening strength—never fails to produce pure, appetizing, nourishing foods, and all this at an economical cost.

Millions of women, hotels, railroads, Domestic Science Teachers, have been relying on it for over 30 years. Made in the world's largest factories.

A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 oz. Some cheap imitations come in 12 oz. cans. Insist on 16 oz. can. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

CREPE DE CHINE FOR BOUDOIR

By Mary Brooks Picken

Dressing up for oneself, paradoxically speaking, is really not a selfish pastime, for what, more than a comfortable negligee that is both unusual and delightfully becoming, can provide the satisfaction and mental composure necessary to relax from home and civic duties and, at the same time, prepare oneself to meet with clearer insight the problems one must ever be ready to face?
Of all the colors that may be used for negligees, mauve, because of the delicacy and refinement it suggests, seems most entrancing in the boudoir. And as no other color gives greater favor with fashion this season, mauve crepe de Chine with mauve lace having a delicately traced pattern was chosen for this design, which boasts of simplicity of cut with an effect that is charmingly unusual. Character is added by the deep mauve ribbons that secure the closing and even further daintiness, by the roses of a light mauve that verges closely on pink.

Bracelets.

Smart women, one notices, are wearing bracelets above the elbow. Bracelets worn thus are usually quite wide and quite jeweled.

This Duke Has Private Army For Himself

London.—James Stuart Murray, Duke of Atholl, is the only non-royal person in the world who supports a private army.

MURPHY.

TRY POST-CRESCENT WANT ADS

The duke is one of the greatest landowners in the United Kingdom. In 1845 Queen Victoria gave his ancestors permission to keep a private army in the Scotch Highlands.
So Murray has three regiments called the Atholl Highlanders.
Murray recently was appointed lord chamberlain by the king.
Today's word is CATALFALQUE. It's pronounced—kata-falk—with accent on the first syllable.
It means—a bier, a structure on which a corpse rests.
It comes from—Italian "Catafalco," scaffold.
It's used like this—"Pope Benedict's body lay in state on a magnificent catafalque."

VEILS
In spite of the many new and attractive meshes which are being shown in veils for spring, the mesh most often seen is the very fine one with small chenille dots thickly inset. The body of the veil is most often white with a dot harmonizing in color with the costume.
SPRING SUITS
Monkey jackets are back! Better than the very straight lined jacket, they will probably not be seen quite so much this spring, but they're on the way. And designers say that by next fall there will be a very decided waist line on the new garments for outdoor wear.

Corn Dishes

ANY an attractive luncheon dish can be made from a can of corn. If eggs are an ingredient the dish will be of great food value. Plain stewed corn does very well to serve with dinner but for luncheon a made dish is preferred.
SCALLOPED CORN
One small green pepper, 2 tablespoons butter, 12 small onion, 2 tablespoons flour, 1 teaspoon salt, 12 teaspoon paprika, 14 teaspoon mustard, 12 cup sweet milk, 1 cup canned corn, 1 egg, 1 egg, buttered crumbs.
Melt butter and add pepper cut in tiny strips. Add onion minced and cook five minutes, stirring constantly to prevent browning. Add flour, salt, paprika and mustard and stir until perfectly blended. Add slowly milk. Bring to boiling point and add corn and yolk of egg well beaten. Mix well and turn into a buttered baking dish. Cover with buttered crumbs and bake in a hot oven until brown.

CORN CUSTARD
One cup canned corn, 12 teaspoon sugar, 12 teaspoon paprika, 1 teaspoon salt, 3 eggs, 2 tablespoons melted butter, 1 12 cups hot milk. Add salt, sugar, paprika and melted butter to corn. In melting butter care should be taken that the butter does not bubble. Add eggs slightly beaten and hot milk. If the corn is very solid add two cups milk. Mix lightly and turn into a buttered baking dish. Bake about 45 minutes in a moderate oven. The custard should be firm to the touch when done.

CORN PUFF
One can corn, 4 eggs, 1/2 tablespoon four, 12 cup milk, 1 teaspoon sugar, 1 tablespoon butter, 1 teaspoon salt, 14 teaspoon pepper.
Beat whites and yolks of eggs separately, yolks till thick and lemon colored and whites till stiff and dry. Add flour, butter, salt, sugar, pepper, milk and yolks of eggs to corn. Fold in whites and turn into a buttered baking dish. Bake half an hour in a moderate oven.
A very good luncheon dish is made by combining corn, canned tomatoes, one sweet green pepper and one half an onion with coarse buttered crumbs. Cover each layer of vegetables with crumbs and bake in a moderate oven until the crumbs are brown. This is an excellent way to use left over corn, but it should be remembered that no great amount of nourishment is provided.

LETTERS TO LOVERS

Balancing Chances

By Winona Wilcox

BUSINESS friendships between men and women with all of their opportunities and freedoms, seldom carry over the social life. Thus the balance is maintained in the matrimonial matter between the home and the engaged girl.
One of the later times complains "I am getting pretty tired of going to places of amusement with business girls. Since I have been working in an office I find that I must attend plays and concerts with one or more bachelor girls if I go at all. I am not yet 25 years old. Most certainly I want the normal life of a wife and mother. Men like me and I meet scores of them daily, nevertheless, it seems to me that the girl who stays at home has all the best chances to marry."

Now it doesn't seem that way at all to an impartial observer. So many men marry the girls they get acquainted with and meet only in a business way that to the home girl it appears that her employed sister has the better chance to select a husband to her taste.
The girl who works often meets scores of men daily, like the writer of the above. What she makes of her opportunity depends upon her own sense, or the lack of it.
The above complainant evidently suspects that the social and business worlds do not mix much better than water and oil. If so, who is to blame?
Perhaps there is an hint of answer in this from a wife who suffers bitterly because my husband attends his office social affairs without me. There are gay dinners and dances several times a year, but he says it is made plain that the wives and sweethearts of the men employed are not expected to be among these present. I am jealous and I can't help it and if he loves me I do not understand how he can want to stay away from me for these affairs."

Mainly the heartache about the separation of home from office friendships is not confined to business life.
Now it is written in all ancient and modern codes of etiquette that the wife must be included in all social invitations except for stag affairs.
This is not often done, today, when the function is of business origin, and nobody approves the infraction of custom more than the business girl.

The obvious reason for the making of an old social rule to suit modern conditions is the fact that the women of the two worlds do not adapt themselves to each other and those who know both worlds know that both sets of women are equally responsible.
In the competition for husbands, the outstanding fact is that the influence some girls have over their office companions ends at the office door, as the first letter makes clear. Plainly, business nor home life gives any woman an advantage in the competition for a husband. The balance remains in equilibrium.

Individual preference, not time nor place, determines most marriages.

Household Hints

Uneven Hem
The uneven hem line is found in most of the models being shown for spring and there is a noticeable tendency toward the longer skirt. Even designers of chicken styles are letting the hem line down.
Mending Plastering
If there is a small hole in the plastering, paste a number of strips of adhesive tape over it, and then cover with wall paper, being sure to match the pattern.
Add Molasses.
If using molasses in baking beans, omit the sugar but add an extra spoonful of molasses and you will find the flavor improved.

APPLETON HIGH FIVE PREPARES FOR HARD GAME

Orange and Blue Tossers Meet Fond du Lac Quintet on Foreign Floor

With every man on the squad in great shape following the game with the Neenah high school team Friday night, Coach Vincent started Monday drilling his high school for the clash with the Orange and Blue tossers in Fond du Lac next Friday night. The Orange and Blue cagers came out of the Neenah struggle without a sprain or a bruise and are ready for the stiff grind ahead of them this week.

Fond du Lac high school has an exceptionally strong team this season, and Coach Vincent is preparing his men for a hard battle Friday night. The Appleton mentor considers Friday's game the hardest remaining on the Orange and Blue schedule before the sectional tournament to be staged in Oshkosh next month, and intends to go with his athletes in top form and going at full speed when they take the floor against the Fond du Lac aggregation.

The Appleton high school quintet has four games remaining on its schedule, two of them away from home. On Feb. 18, the week following the clash with Fond du Lac, the Orange and Blue will play a return game with Neenah at Neenah; Oshkosh will come to Appleton for a game on Feb. 24 and the Orange and Blue will wind up its schedule for this season with a contest with Manitowish in Alexander gymnasium on March 3.

DRAW SCHEDULE FOR TOURNAMENT

Elks Committee Prepares Chart For Bowling Series to be Staged Here

Forty seven teams from the Appleton lodge have entered the tenth annual bowling tournament for Elks to be staged in this city beginning Feb. 18. Three more Appleton teams will be entered Tuesday which will bring the total to 50 five men teams from this city in the tournament.

The entry list for out of town bowlers closed Sunday night and local entries must all be in Tuesday. The tournament committee is checking up the list of teams entered from lodges over the state and will be able to announce the number of entries Tuesday evening. It is believed that about 400 teams will roll in the championship series.

Work of preparing a schedule for the tournament has already been started and the committee expects to be able to finish by Wednesday night.

TWELVE CORNERS FIVE SCHEDULES TWO GAMES

The Twelve Corners basketball team has two hard games on its schedule for this week. On Wednesday night the Twelve Corners quintet will clash with the Black Crooks and on Saturday night with the strong Nichols team. Both games will be played in the Twelve Corners gymnasium.

The Twelve Corners five defeated the Lone Stars of Appleton by a score of 20 to 10 Friday night on the Twelve Corners floor.

OLYMPIA HAT SHOP WINS BOWLING MATCH

LAWRENCE FIVE OUT TO DEFEAT BELOIT OUTFIT

Blue and White Players Start Hard Training for Game Friday Night

Determined to even up the count with the strong Beloit basketball team by handing it a beating on its own floor, the Lawrence college basketball cagers started hard training Monday afternoon in Alexander gymnasium for the battle with Gold five in Beloit next Friday night.

Beloit has a straight run of victories for the season and unless the state line athletes are stopped by Lawrence Friday night they have an easy road to the state championship.

The Beloit team is continuing its winning streak and Saturday night downed the strong Lombard quintet of Galesburg Ill., 11 to 10 on the Beloit floor. The Lombard aggregation is one of the fastest among the Sucker state minor colleges and Beloit demonstrated its class by defeating the Galesburg five.

LUCKY TO WIN
The great record hung up by Beloit this season is not worrying Coach McChesney or his tossers. The Gold was lucky to win from the Blue and White by one point in the contest staged here two weeks ago and the Lawrence athletes believe they will finish on the long end of the score in Friday's battle. The Blue and White showed a better brand of team work and snappier passing than the Beloit quintet in the struggle staged here and are confident that with the breaks of the game equal they will set the Gold aggregation down with a defeat in Friday night's battle.

Coach McChesney plans to send his men at top speed every afternoon this week and expects to have them going in fine form when they clash with the undefeated Beloit team.

HY-Y QUINTET PLAYS RHINELANDER CAGERS

The H-Y Club basketball team of the Appleton Y. M. C. A. will clash with the Rhinelander Junior High school quintet Friday night in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium. The Appleton cagers were defeated by the Rhinelander aggregation last week in Rhinelander by a score of 25 to 9 but expect to even the count in the return battle.

To Curb Gluttony
Munich—A law has been proposed by the Bavarian cabinet which would impose 200,000 marks fine and five years imprisonment on persons found guilty of "schlemmererei," gluttony or high living.

Today's Sport Angle

Is football in the eastern colleges pure and unsullied?

Now that the west has adopted the dry cleanser, hasn't the east any soiled linen that might be washed?

Can it be possible there is a different ethics of sportsmanship existing in the east than the west?

Have western coaches adopted methods to get stars that do not meet with the approval of the eastern mentors?

Is there a better college spirit among the students in the east than the west?

Do the athletes prize the varsity letter more in the east than they do in the wild and woolly west?

It doesn't seem possible there could be such a great difference in so many things that go to make up college life.

However, the expose of the Illinois and Notre Dame athletes hasn't made even so much as a flurry in the east.

Since Illinois and Notre Dame declared a score of athletes ineligible, a number of other western colleges have discovered they have been harboring athletes guilty of professionalism as defined by the college code.

It is regrettable that these conditions should crop out at such a time.

For the first time in years the west was receiving the ranking in the athletic world that it has deserved for years.

Then just as the leading critics of the country finished singing the praises of the west, it is discovered that the western brand of college athletics has been honeycombed with professionalism.

In all probability a lot of interesting developments can be expected before the coming of the football season, both in the east and west.

GIBBONS READY TO FIGHT ANY OF 'EM

Light Heavyweight Eager for Battle With Gene Tunney, Present Champion

By Henry L. Farrell

By United Press Leased Wire
New York—Tom Gibbons, St. Paul light heavyweight who has won by a knockout in twenty of his last twenty-two bouts, is ready now for any one.

Eddy Kane, his manager, said Tuesday that he would talk business with any heavyweight in the country. He wants Bill Brennan, Gene Tunney, Harry Greb, Bob Roper or any opponent suggested by any promoter.

"We have been accused of building up a reputation on set ups. We have been meeting what looked like easy marks but we had to. None of the good ones would give us a chance. We can prove it now by issuing a challenge to any of them," Kane said.

Speaking of reports that Carpenter wants Gibbons to win the American light heavyweight championship before he comes back to America for his contracted bout, Kane said he would be willing to meet the Frenchman's wishes.

"I would be willing to sign for a bout with Gene Tunney, the winner to meet Carpenter for the world's title," he said. "If Tunney should beat Gibbons I would be willing to turn our contract over to him because he would be more deserving of it."

Several promoters have been talking to Kane about a Gibbons-Tunney meeting for this summer. Kane is willing but the former soldier fighter has not committed himself.

NET TOURNAMENT STARTS TUESDAY

HILL CONFIDENT HE WILL DEFEAT TERRIBLE TURK

Appleton Wrestler Rounding In to Shape for Bout Thursday Night

George Hill, heavyweight wrestler of Appleton, who meets Yussif Mahmoud, the "Terrible Turk" in a finish match in Armory G Thursday night, is rounding into shape for the struggle and expects to be in the top form when he exchanges holds and punishment with the great Turk. Hill is working out daily with a large corps of wrestling partners and takes pains on the way to develop his wind and endurance.

Wrestling fans are looking forward to a fast and sensational battle when these mighty grappling stars come together in the squared circle. Two gam or or faster men never went on to a mat and there will be action Thursday night from the time they grab for their first holds until one is declared the winner.

Mahmout is one of the marvels of the mat game. He is a man of almost super-human strength and breaks holds with ease that would mean defeat for the ordinary wrestler. Like Jack Dempsey in the boxing ring, Mahmout's chief defense is his furious attack. The "Terrible Turk" knows every hold that was ever used in a wrestling match and applies one after another with dazzling rapidity. He is, however, partial to the toe hold and has many different ways of applying it, each one which brings torture to his opponent.

Hill is not afraid of toe holds. He has been caught in many of them but has always been able to work himself free without suffering any ill effects. The Appleton man, however, has worked out a defense for the stinging crotch, the hold with which Mahmout defeated him in their previous engagement and the only grip the Turk had that bothered Hill.

Hill is confident of beating the "Terrible Turk" Thursday night. The Appleton athlete is a much improved wrestler over the previous meeting of the pair while Mahmout was at the top of his career a year ago. Yussif was able to throw Hill but once in two hours when they clashed in the Appleton arena last season and Hill is not only confident that the Turk will not gain a fall on him Thursday but is certain he will pin Mahmout's shoulders to the mat.

ZBYSZKO RETAINS WRESTLING TITLE

New York.—Stanislaus Zbyszko retained his title as heavyweight wrestling champion Monday night by scoring two out of three falls with Earl Caddock, former soldier champion. Zbyszko scored the first fall in 25 minutes and the third in 10 minutes and 20 seconds, both being rolling falls. Caddock took the second fall in ten minutes and thirty seconds when he pinned the Pole's shoulders to the mat with a crotch hold.

IF KIDNEYS AND BLADDER BOTHER

Take Salts to Flush Kidneys And Neutralize Irritating Acids

Kidney and Bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever.

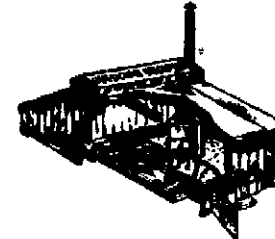

Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble. adv.

Famous Old Recipe for Cough Syrup

Easily and cheaply made at home, but it takes them all for quick results.

Thousands of housewives have found that they can save two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, by using this well-known old recipe for making cough syrup. It is simple and cheap but it has no equal for prompt results. It takes right hold of a cough and gives immediate relief, usually stopping an ordinary cough in 24 hours or less.

Get 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex from any druggist, pour it into a pint bottle, and add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, keeps perfectly, and lasts a family a long time.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it acts, penetrating through every air passage of the throat and lungs—loosens and raises the phlegm, soothes and heals the membranes, and gradually but surely the annoying throat tickle and dreaded cough disappear entirely. Nothing better for bronchitis, spasmodic croup, hoarseness or bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract known the world over for its healing effect on membranes. Avoid disappointment by asking your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. GIRLS! LEMONS

WHITEN HANDS

Press the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, which any drug store will supply for a few cents, shake well, and you have a quarter-pint of harmless and delightful lemon-bleach lotion to soften and whiten red, rough or chapped hands. This home-made lemon lotion is far superior to glycerin and rose water to smoothen the skin. Famous stage beauties use it to bleach and bring that soft, clear, rosy-white complexion, because it doesn't irritate.

SALE STARTS THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 9th AT 9:00 A. M.

THE REASON AND CAUSE OF THIS GREAT SALE

Like a stroke of lightning from a clear sky comes the news that F. & R. Radtke retires from the shoe business; ordered by the doctor to quit. $16,000 worth of the finest shoes for men, women and children at 50c on the dollar, to be sold at a fraction of their original cost. Sale begins in the morning at F. & R. Radtke's Store, 901 College Avenue.

After 27 years of merchandising we are compelled to quit business on account of the ill health of F. & R. Radtke. The greatest bargain giving event that has ever taken place in Wisconsin. Everything will be sold, but the key to the store. We will leave the bare walls to tell the tale that Radtke's stock was sold at 50c on the dollar. You can now shoe the whole family at a mere trifle. on't fail to be here Thursday, February 9th.

The Entire Stock Will Positively Be Sold Regardless of Cost

The prices in many instances will not cover the cost of production, and will represent such real savings that you must be here Thursday, February 9th, to secure your share. The biggest Shoe Saving of your life will present itself to you. Our record of honorable merchandising backs up any statement herein made. It will be a sale that will blaze a trail through the tangled meshes of competition—annihilating high prices. Values that no living being could expect to see quoted—backed up by the best quality Shoes made in this country.

A Word To The Public!

We could have sold our stock in bulk to a good advantage but we have decided to give the people of Appleton and surrounding country the opportunity to shoe themselves for less money than ever before in the history of Appleton. Because you are the people who have stood by us these past many years, it is not an easy matter for us to say good-bye and sever our relations with our many customers. But sickness compels us to take this step, so we are going to make history in the shoe business at Appleton. Our entire stock of high grade shoes will be sold at prices never heard of, beginning Thursday, February 9th, at 901 College Ave.

THE F. & R. RADTKE SHOE STORE
